Risks

Guinness Multi-Asset Growth Fund is a multi-asset fund investing primarily in other funds ("Underlying Funds") which themselves may invest in equities, Government Bonds, fixed interest securities (which may include sub-investment grade securities), property and other investments. Investors should be willing and able to assume the risks of equity investing. The value of an investment and the income from it can fall as well as rise as a result of market and currency movement, and you may not get back the amount originally invested. Further details on the risk factors are included in the Fund's documentation, available on our website.

Cumulative Performance

FE fundinfo 31.03.24. Investors should note that fees and expenses are charged to the capital of the Fund. This reduces the return on your investment by an amount equivalent to the Ongoing Charges Figure (OCF). The current OCF for the share class used for the fund performance returns is 0.98%. Returns for share classes with a different OCF will vary accordingly. Transaction costs also apply and are incurred when a fund buys or sells holdings. The performance returns do not reflect any initial charge; any such charge will also reduce the return.

Market Commentary

For equity markets, the first quarter saw a continuance of last year's final quarter. Following an 11.6% rise in US equity markets in Q4, this quarter saw a further 10.4% rise. This was closely followed by a similar rise in Japanese markets in US$ terms. Europe saw half this rise whilst Asia and Emerging Markets remained the laggards with returns of only 2.4%. Growth stocks, and in particular "The Magnificent Seven", continued to drive markets higher despite the anticipation of early rate cuts failing to materialise.

Markets took their tone from the US economy which remained resilient with PMI data showing the economy continued to expand and an increased belief of a US soft-landing. Following stubborn inflation figures and the strength of US growth, markets briefly fell as the Federal Reserve retraced its guidance of potentially 6 rate cuts in 2024 to just 3 beginning at some point in the summer. China continued to provide cause for concern within the Asian and EM economies despite rebounding from January lows as better activity over the Chinese New Year and rate cuts gave solace. Both the UK and Europe released anaemic GDP growth mirroring Q3 data with the UK entering a technical recession.

With the hope of early interest rate cuts receding bond markets struggled over the quarter with government bonds falling the most. Index linked bonds also fell with corporate bonds benefitting from economic growth but still posting negative returns. However, fixed income markets are more fairly priced than entering the year and should help provide a diversifier if economists' expectations are unfulfilled.

Fund Profile

Investment Objective

The investment objective is to provide capital appreciation over the long term. Returns will be generated through both capital growth and income, with a bias towards developed and liquid capital markets. The risk will be diversified by holding collective investments in a range of asset classes and geographies. The management of the portfolio aims to meet the objective conservatively by taking managed risk through fund selection and asset allocation. The portfolio is based on the Brewin Dolphin International MPS Passive Plus Growth Strategy.

Investment Policy

The Fund is actively managed without reference to a benchmark. The Fund invests in funds in a range of different asset classes.
